Introduction to the Liturgy of the Day

Taken from "Pastoral Patterns" by GIA Publications, Inc.

Rejoice! This is the day that the Lord has made. God's love and mercy have been poured out for all and to all. By his sacrifice on the cross, Jesus has conquered sin and defeated death. No longer do sin and death have power over us. A new day dawns, for new life has dawned for all of us: a life in God's tender loving care that survives sin and overcomes death. Jesus has shown us the way to the Father. The crosses we carry - our fears and our struggles, our sorrows and our traumas - are united with the cross of our Lord, which did not end in pain and death but with joy and life. May the promise of the Resurrection fill us with hope, enliven our lives, and lead us to life eternal. Alleluia!

Introduction to the Liturgy of the Word

Taken from "Pastoral Patterns" by GIA Publications, Inc.

The readings we hear today celebrate the Lord's resurrection. Saints Peter and Paul bring the good news of the Resurrection to the Gentiles, Peter giving eyewitness testimony of his time with Jesus before and after his death and resurrection, while Paul points out that the Resurrection transforms our lives. In the Gospel, neither angels nor the risen Lord appear to the first visitors to the tomb to testify to the Resurrection, but the disciple Jesus loves believes at once. May God's word guide us to belief as well.

The disciple whom Jesus loved is a model for all of us, for he believed before he understood. After all, the Resurrection is an event beyond human understanding. Science and logic cannot explain the mystery that is fully known to God alone. But this doesn't mean that the mystery hasn't been revealed to us at all. Jesus revealed glimpses of the mystery throughout his mission. He raised up those who were put down or shut out by society, whether by sin, disability, or disrepute - those whom others were unwilling to engage. He raised the girl thought dead and Lazarus, four days in the tomb. He repeatedly told his disciples that he himself would be raised on the third day. The disciple Jesus loved could not explain what happened, but he believed that it was true.

QUESTION OF THE WEEK

Divine Mercy Sunday
Day of Mercy Program
Sunday, April 16, 2023
St. Patrick's, Neola
2:00 - 3:30 p.m.

"Let us live this Jubilee intensely, begging the Father to forgive our sins and to bathe us in his merciful 'indulgence.'" -Pope Francis

A Powerful Prayer

In a vision to St. Maria Faustina Kowalska in 1935, the Lord revealed a powerful prayer that he wanted everyone to say - the Chaplet of Divine Mercy - and he promised extraordinary graces to those who would recite it:

"I want this image (Divine Mercy) to be solemnly blessed on the first Sunday after Easter; that Sunday is to be the Feast of Mercy. On that day the depths of My Mercy will be opened to all. Whoever will go to Confession and Holy Communion on that day will receive complete forgiveness of sin and punishment." (Diary, 49).

Whoever will recite it will receive great mercy at the hour of death. ...Priests will recommend it to sinners as their last hope of salvation. Even if there were a sinner most hardened, if he were to recite this chaplet only once, he would receive grace from My infinite mercy. ...I desire to grant unimaginable graces to those souls who trust in My mercy... (Diary, 687).

Encourage souls to say the chaplet which I have given you. ...When they say this chaplet in the presence of the dying, I will stand between My Father and the dying person, not as a just Judge but as the Merciful Savior... (1541).

Through the chaplet you will obtain everything, if what you ask for is compatible with My will (1731).

Prayed on ordinary rosary beads, the chaplet is an intercessory prayer that extends the offering of the Eucharist. It may be said at any time, but our Lord especially requested that it be used as a novena on the nine days before the Feast of Mercy (the first Sunday after Easter).

It is also especially appropriate to say the chaplet during the 3 o'clock hour (recalling the time of Christ's death on the Cross). In his revelations to St. Faustina, our Lord asked for special prayer and veneration for his Passion during this time.

ONE MILLION ROSARIES FOR UNBORN BABIES

May 5th(Friday), May 6th(Saturday) and May 7th(Sunday) • 2023

Can the goal of 1,000,000 Rosaries for unborn babies be reached?

Absolutely! But, only if many people will pray at least one Rosary(May 6th - 8th) for an end to the surgical and non-surgical killing of unborn human persons.

Please, be one of the persons who will participate in the multinational ONE MILLION ROSARIES FOR UNBORN BABIES.

To register:

Use the form below and send it to the address that is printed on the form, or you may register by going to:

www.SaintMichaelTheArchangelOrganization.org

All things therefore whatsoever you would that men should do to you, do you also to them.
- The Holy Gospel of Jesus Christ according to Saint Matthew(chapter 7, verse 12a).

Let other people know about the ONE MILLION...

1) For Friday, May 5th - Contact schools and encourage them to participate.

2) For Saturday, May 6th - Gather with others at an abortion facility to pray the Rosary.

3) For Sunday, May 7th - Ask the parish priest(s) to lead the Rosary before or after Mass(es).
